

Privacy Policy

Your right to privacy

Biomechanics Education Ltd is committed to protecting your privacy and security. We will only use the information we collect about you with your consent to process your order and to tell you about our services. We will never wilfully disclose personal information about you to any third party other than to process your order without first receiving your permission or unless we are under a legal obligation to do so.

Why We Need To Collect Information From You

When you ordering from Biomechanics Education Ltd, we need to know your name, email address, delivery address, telephone details. This allows us to process and fulfil your order.

We may also use the information we collect about you to notify you from time to time about important new features and changes to Biomechanics Education Ltd or special offers we think you'll find of interest. If you have asked not to be, we will not contact you to notify you of these services for any other reason unless it is connected with your purchase.

Who Else Will We Tell About You?

We will not pass on your personal details to any third party, including site sponsors or advertisers, without your permission. We may provide aggregate statistics about our customers, sales, traffic patterns and related site information to our third-party partners, but these statistics will not contain any information about you from which you could be identified.

Your Consent

By placing an order with Biomechanics Education Ltd, you consent to the collection and use of the information you provide solely for the purposes of processing and fulfilling your order.

In Summary

We're committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information we collect on the site only for the purposes for which you have consented. We won't pass on your personal information to others without your permission. You can always enquire about or check the information that you have given us by contacting us (see below).
